

The Skaters Role – Power Skaters

- Responsibility is to make sure that the resources provided to you are put to use.
- Follow the general rules and ice etiquette of Carleton Place Skating Club.

General

- Respect, and support fellow skaters, parents, coaches, officials, Club executives and arena staff at all times.
- Keep in mind your goals and objectives while at the arena and do not interfere with fellow skaters and arena staff.
- Respect arena and ice surface, do not chew gum, do not eat or drink while on the ice surface. Water bottles are permitted but must be to the side of the ice surface near penalty boxes, or in the stands.
- Do not interrupt a lesson, or try to get the attention of a coach giving a lesson to a fellow skater

Skater Code of Conduct & Ice Etiquette

- To keep pathways clear for other skaters.
- Skaters are expected to be skating at all times while on the ice.
- After a fall, skaters are expected to get up promptly in order to keep pathways clear for other skaters.
- When practicing skaters must learn to manoeuvre around other skaters.
- The ice surface should be used for practice and not for conversation.
- Foul language, eye rolling, slamming of objects, yelling, abusive or aggressive behaviour; including kicking holes in the ice, is not permitted.
- Calling out "Excuse me!" or "Heads up!" will alert other skaters.
- Skaters must clear the ice promptly at the end of each session.
- Sitting on the boards is not permitted.
- ALWAYS BE RESPECTFUL TO OTHER SKATERS, VOLUNTEERS, COACHES, PARENTS, ARENA STAFF, and GUESTS.

Disciplinary Action will follow these steps:

- 1st offense: Verbal warning from skater's coach, parent informed of warning, if skater is under the age of majority. A copy of the Code of Conduct will be given to the skater to review again.
- 2nd Offense: Letter from President to the skater or skater's parent, if skater is under the age of majority.
- 3rd Offense: Suspension from all Club programs and events for 1 week. (This includes all competitions).
- 4th Offense: Skater will be asked to leave the Club.